

Troubleshooting ThinLINE Torque Wrench Series 400

Problem	Possible Causes	Possible Solutions
The cylinder does not extend or retract	The quick disconnects are not properly connected	Check the quick disconnect connections to verify that they are seated properly and fully engaged
The quick disconnect will not lock or will not release	The hydraulic hose is still pressurized	Carefully release the pressure within the hydraulic
The wrench binds itself on the bolt	The pawl control lever is jammed	Carefully release the pawl control lever